This is the tenth AGM of Mission World Aid Inc. but the first in which the report is not included with that of House of Prayer for All Nations-Adelaide Inc. Since the latter became incorporated last November, the two organizations have been separated although the same Board members hold positions on both Boards. Mission World Aid Inc. is of course the mercy mission arm of the House of Prayer for All Nations-Adelaide Inc.

Trevor Radbone resigned from the board in January to take up a position interstate, and Pat Derham resigned in May, returning to serve the Lord overseas. We pay tribute to them both and thank them for their input.

Bill and Esma Pole were invited to join the Board in January. They bring a wealth of faith and experience with them from founding El Carim at Ironbank.

I know that all of you would like to join me in paying tribute to Bob and Avril Dalby for all the hard work they have put in this past year in administering the aid work. They have faced huge obstacles at times but their perseverance and persistence, and the strength God has given them, has enabled them to see the fruit of their labours. The shed team seems to have got through a mountain of work, and only the Lord knows how many tonnes of clothing they have sorted and packed, and how many boxes of supplies have been filled. They are just the most precious loyal team and I miss working with them.

It was an honour to have the Hon. Alexander Downer, Foreign Affairs Minister and member for Mayo visit our shed site on December 24th and inspect our work. He was accompanied by a representative from Aus Aid in Canberra and a local staff member. It seemed so the Lord that he came exactly seven years to the day that our first aid container arrived at Maforga Christian Mission on Christmas Eve 1992—seven being the biblical number for completion.

I would like to conclude my report by reading you a true story that depicts the essence of our aid work.

Along with Bob and Avril, we want to thank all those who have sent in supplies, prayed and financially supported this precious work that is so dear to God's heart.

A Little Girl's Prayer—

Jennifer Hagger
Director.
